

Nuclear Seminar

NOTE NEW DAY+TIME***

Novth 4th @ 1:00 PM in RM 179

Spectroscopy of Non-Strange Baryons

I will discuss the analysis of data from πN elastic scattering and single pion photo- and electro-production. The main focus is a study of low-lying non-strange baryon resonances. Here I will concentrate on some difficulties associated with resonance identification, in particular the Roper and higher P11 states.

Igor Strakovsky

George Washington University